Lucius Barnes Barbour (1878-1934) inherited from his father, Lucius A. Barbour, an early interest in both local history and genealogy.

In 1911 he was appointed the first permanent Examiner of Public Records, and he also served as an assistant State Librarian.

He had hoped to emulate Massachusetts by putting into print vital records prior to 1850, but after publishing New Haven's in two volumes and Norwich's in two volumes he realized that the needed time and expense would be too great.

With his friend and fellow worker, George S. Godard, State Librarian, he set about making the Library a central depository for those records in the various towns which were rapidly falling into disrepair and at his own expense had copies made of the earliest vital records.

Early Hartford Families is one of a number of versions on which Mr. Barbour worked during these years. His own family tree included many of these lines, and his work in the preservation, care and improved methods of record keeping reinforced his interest in helping other genealogists.

From notes which he first called Families of Hartford and Vicinity he worked and re-worked the compilation but was apparently never sufficiently satisfied to put it into print.

Also as an amateur working in spare time he did not put in the detailed references which we find in the best professional works, and some errors have been perpetuated from earlier printed sources.

Hartford records, however, are less complete than those of our other towns, and so this work can serve as a useful guide for further searching.

Mr. Barbour's sources include:

Hartford Town Records

Hartford First Church Records
Hartford Second Church Records
West Hartford Church Records
East Hartford Church Records
Sextons Record 1st Church
Genealogical Notes, by Nathaniel Goodwin
Trumbull's History of Hartford County
Various Family Genealogies

The Connecticut Society of Genealogists is to be commended for producing these volumes from manuscript copy which is not always clear or complete.

PREFACE

This book contains the genealogical records of over 950 families of early Hartford, Connecticut. The records are arranged alphabetically by family name, under which may also be found the names and records of allied families. To facilitate the search for an allied family the reader is advised to consult the index at the back of the book.

Our information indicates that early Hartford records were not kept as well as the records of some other Connecticut towns. Those that exist—mainly church records, sexton's records, and probate records—are in poor condition and are scattered in various places. Although not easy to locate, and difficult to read when once found, the records for the period 1645-1825 were nevertheless copied by Mr. Lucius Barnes Barbour and assembled in the manner published herein.

Jeremy Adams was at Braintree, perhaps, 1632, rem soon to Cambridge; freeman there, May 6, 1635; came to Hartford in 1636 where he was an original proprietor; his home lot in 1639 was on the highway now Elm Street; contable in 1639. Married about that time Rebecca, widow of Samuel Greenhill, it is supposed as a second wife, and in the Distribution p 217, he is described as in possession of the house lot and lands of Greenhill until the two children come of age (date not given). He was licensed for exclusive right to retail liquors May 1660; to keep ordinary, March 1661-2; this tavern was on the site of the present Universalist Church. He bought the lot of John Morrice and mortgaged it to the Colony Jan. 26, 1660; his affairs had evidently bee in an embarrassed condition for some time, and the mortgage was foreclosed Jan. 14, 1680-1. He was appointed Customs-Master May 1663; freed from watching and warding at the age of 60 Mch 2, 1664-5: townsman 1671. Inv. £243.5.6. He mentions in his will his grandson Zachary Sandford, children of son John Adams & children of son Willet. Jeremy Adams prob. came to Hartford with Rev Mr. Hooker's Company in 1636. In 1638 he was one of a committee with Capt. John Mason appointed by the Gen. Court to trade with the Indians for corn. In 1644, he was ordered to appear at the next Particular Court and receive such censure as he deserved for his resistance of an officer - his passionate speeches, loud language and unmannerly conduct in the fact of the court. He had 30 acres of land in the division 1639-40. His home lot was bounded west by Joseph Easton, east by James Ensign and north & south by roads. In 1660 he was the only person in Hartford allowed to sell wine in a less quantity than a quarter cask or other liquors less than an ancor. Was juror, up to Gen. Court, and held other places of trust and honor in the town and colony. Nathaniel Willet executor. The house of the executor was burned and in it all the books and papers of the deceased.

His house lot was on the road to the Neck now Windsor St. and he owned 110 acres in that and other lots. He was excommunicated by the Church in Hartford and June 3, 1644 he appealed to the Gen. Court for redress. The records do not show how the affair was settled but it may have been one cause of his removal to Windsor. Nevertheless few men in the Colony had more influence or received more honors from the people. He was Deputy from Windsor 1648 to 1657; Assistant 1658 to 1667; Commissioner for the United Colonies 1660 and 1664; frequently appointed upon important Committees by the Gen. Court. He was master of a vessel at Curacoa 1647-8; juror Hfd 1648-9; Winthrop calls him "a godly and discreet man." He was in command of the fort at Saybrook when Sir Edmund Andros attempted to gain the place for his master, the Duke of York, in 1675. Obituary Notice: Mrs. Elizabeth Caldwell Rogers

Many Hartford people will learn with regret of the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Caldwell Rogers, who died Tuesday night at Montclair, N.J., in her 90th year. She was the widow of Rev. Dr. E.P. Rogers and the daughter of Major John Caldwell, who was a prominent merchant of Hartford and the first president of the Hartford Bank, and who died in 1838. Major Caldwell was one of those who lost ships and property through the French spoliations and Mrs. Rogers was before her death one of the few living children of the original claimants. Mrs. Rogers was an aunt of the late Colonel Samuel Colt. She leaves six children, who are: Miss Elizabeth C. Rogers and Mrs. E. G. Janeway of New York, Mrs. Grace Walker and Mrs. William Ludlam of Montclair, N.J., Clifford C. Rogers of Fairfield, this state, and Mrs. Mary R. Root of this city. Colonel Francis Parsons of this city is a grandnephew. Mrs. Rogers kept her faculties remarkably well up to within a few days of her death, and she retained an intelligent interest in all the affairs about her. She had been sick for several weeks and death was due to a general breaking down of her system.

JOHN CLARK

John Clark died Nov 22, 1712 mar Rebecca Maroon dau of Matthew Maroon & Elizabeth (See Farm Rec). Early member 1 Ch. Moved to Farmington. Name on Founders Monument. Prob. came in the "Elizabeth" from Ipswich Co Suffolk Apl 1634; was a soldier in the Pequot Wars; was one of the owners of that tract of land in Hfd known as the "Soldiers Field". An original proprietor, his home lot in 1639-40 was on the west side of the highway from Seth Grant's to Centinetl Hill (now Trumbull St) near the present Allyn St. He probably removed from Hartford previously to 1655 for his name does not appear in the list of tax-payers in the millrates for the years 1655-6 or 7 which are preserved. His home is, however, found in the lists of "the proprietors of undivided lands in Hartford, with such of then proportions in one division as followeth; according to which prportion they paid for the purchase of said lands in 1665-6-71 & 2. These divisions of the undivided lands were, however, made to now residents and even to the heirs of deceased proprietors." Was juror at Hartford Sept 1641 and Oct 1642; deputy May 1649. Dr. Trumbull thinks that this John Clark is the one who was at Saybrook later but there is an inextricable confusion between the three John Clarks at Hartford, Saybrook and Farmington. John Clark was directed by the General Court "to carry on the building of the fort" with Capt. Mason. The will of John Clark of Saybrook is recorded at New Haven and is dated Feb 17, 1672 at the beginning and Jan 19, 1673 at the end. Inv. Feb 28, 1673.

Son of Thomas Hooker or Hoker of Marfield in the parish of Tilton. Grandson of Kenelm Hooker of Blaston who was the only son of Thomas Hooker or Hoker of Blaston, Co. Leicester, whose will dated Sept 2, 1559 was proved Jan 27, 1561-2 by Cecilia Hooker, his relict and executrix. It is supposed that this Thomas Hooker held some stewardship or like office under the Digby family, who possessed estates in that part of Leicestershire. Kenellime Digby Esq. is a witness and named as "supervisor" of the will, and the son Kenelm or Kenellyme Hooker undoubtedly received his name from Kenelm Digby, who was the grandfather of Sir Everard Digby, executed in 1606 for his complicity in the "gunpowder plot", and great grandfather of the learned Sir Kenelm Digby. John's inventory, £94; Samuel's, £138, 25s, 1d probated November 3, 1712. Administration given to John and Samuel Howard. Henry Howard, father of these, in his will 1708, mentions John Adsit, grandson (Volume 7, page 30). In the appendix of Volume 8, is found, page -07, year 1712-13, a court record: "John Adjett, formerly of Hartford, late of Block Island (a transient person), father of John and Samuel Adjett, late of Hartford, deceased, now appeard and moved the court to reverse its former decree committing administration on the estates of John and Samuel Adjett to John and Samuel Howard, the father claiming the right." The decree was not then reversed. On the settlement the court ordered distribution to the father as next-of-kin, but Samuel Howard appealed to the superior court, 1713. The father was evidently the founder of "Hatchett's Point", Lyme, and his sons John and Samuel died intestate, and probably by accident, as their inventories were exhibited same day to the court. Henry Howard's will names wife Sarah, sons John and Samuel (executors of the Adjetts), and daughters Mary and Lydia, besides John Adsit, grandson. The "Howard Family" was recently published by Daniel Howard, Windsor Locks, Conn.

An original proprietor of Hartford; his home lot in the distribution of 1639 fronted on Meeting House Square; this was land which he had bought of Edward Hopkins, his first location having been directly east of the square. This lot comprised the square, fronting on Main St now bounded by Pearl, Trumbull and Asylum Sts. On the southeast corner he erected a dwelling for his own occupation which he continued in possession of his family for several generations. Mr. Goodwin, in his "Descendants of Thomas Olcott" says that this dwelling was demolished in 1824 to make room for the large block called Union Hall which was in its turn removed when the great pile of the Connecticut Mutual building was erected. He was a merchant and carried on trade with parties in Virginia for tobacco. Constable 1641; will dated Nov 20, 1653, in it he mentions his "beloved mother Mrs. Margrett Charlfount, sister Mrs. Mary Hardey (?) mother Hoare: Brother Will. Wadsworth, Brother Will. Lewis Senr, deare Brethren and friends, John Talcott and Edward Stebbin Overseers"; inv Feb 13, 1653-4 £1466-8-5. Mrs. Abigail Olcott carried on his husband's business after his death. She bought, let and sold lands, loaned money on mortgages, security, "made contracts for delivering goods, etc."

Rev. Samuel Stone son of John Stone, a freeholder of that place, was born in Hertford Co Herts (usually at that time sounded Hartford); bapt. July 30, 1602 in the church of All Saints; entered at Emmanuel College, Cambridge 1620; A.B. 1623; Asu. 1627. Recent discoveries show that a Samuel Stone probably this one was curate at Stisted, Co. Essex, near Chelmsford from June 13, 1627 to Sept 13, 1630. He came to New England with Colton, Hooker and other men of note in the "Griffin", arriving at Boston Sept 4, 1633; chosen Teacher of the Church at Cambridge Oct 11, 1633; freeman Mass. May 14, 1634; removed to Hartford 1636, where he was an original proprietor, and in 1639 his home lot was on the north bank of the Little River, between those of Rev. Thomas Hooker and Elder William Goodwin. He served as chaplain to the troops under Capt. Mason in the Pequot War 1637. His wife died 1640, before Nov 2 or 3, when Mr. Hooker mentions her death in a letter to Rev. T. Shepard, saying that she "smonked out her days in the darkness of melancholy". After Mr. Hooker's decease he was the sole pastor of the First Church until his death; inv. £563-1.

JOHN STONE

Samuel and his first wife) graduated H.C. 1653; he had no commencement part when his class took their second degree, having perhaps previously gone to England where he received the degree of Mch? from the University of Cambridge. After the Restoration a "Mr. John Stone" was silenced at Hellingly in Sussex. "Was this the graduate?" His name was starred on the College catalogue before 1700. Rev. Ezekiel Rogers in his will Apl 17, 1660 mentions his "loving nephew" Mr. Sam'l Stone of Conn. and his son John.

SAMUEL STONE

Samuel Stone s of Rev. Samuel & Elizabeth (Allen) was at Harvard for a time about 1659, but left before graduation. He was colleague with Rev. Gershom Bulkeley at Wethersfield 1666-9, and again 1676; he also preached at Simsbury and Middletown, and perhaps other places, but "fell into intemperate habits, was excommunicated from the Church and wasted his whole estate". He never married; died Oct 8, 1683; "he was among his companions first at one and then at another taverne, and thence went in the evening to a friends' house (that of Henry Howard who m Sarah Stone) when his discourse was very bitter and offensive to some present, but going thence, the night being very dark, was found the next morning dead in the little River that runs through the town, having missed the bridge. He fell down upon the Rocks, and thence rowled or some way gott into the water at a little distance and there lay dead at break of day."

Gov. George Wyllys born at Feeny Compton, Co. Warwick, son of Richard Wyllys Esq. and Hester, dau of George Chambers of Williams Cote, Co. Oxford. His pedigree is traced back in England for several generations. In Cawdin's Visitation of Warwickshire in 1619, George Wyllys is described as living at Fenny Compton, aged 29 with his wife Bridget. The name of the wife he brought with him to New England was Mary (prob a second wife). In 1636 he sent his steward William Gibbons with twenty men to Hartford to purchase and prepare for him a farm, erect a dwelling house, and have everything in readiness for himself and his family. He had been a partner with Robert Saltonstall and William Whiting in the Dover and Piscataqua patents (Mass. Rec 1; 342). He was an original proprietor, and it is hardly necessary to say that his home lot covered the square now included between Main, Charter Oak, Governor and Wyllys Sts, and that on it stood the famous Charter Oak. He came in 1638; was chosen magistrate April 11, 1639, again 1640, 43, 44; deputy governor 1641; governor 1642; and Commissioner of the United Colonies. His widow Mary was living 1655. April 6, 1638. George Wyllys of Fenny Compoton, gentn, and Marie his wife, conveyed to Richard Sonarte (?) all their land in Old Stratford, Wellcombe and Bishopton. "George Wyllys Jr." one of the witnesses. "Of your charite pray for the soul of Richard Wyllys, gentleman, lord of the Mannour of Fenny Compton, and one of the King's justices of the Peace in the Co. of Warwick, And Jane his wife, which Richard deceased the VIII day of February in the year of our Lord XXDXXXI of whose souls Jesse have mercy. Amen. Here lyeth buried the body of Richard Willis of Fenny Compton in the County of Warwick, gentleman, son of Ambrose Willis, deceased. Which said Richard had by Hester his wife, five children that is to say, George, William, Richard, Judith and Mary all now living, who deceased the tenth day of June 1597."

In 1661, 1662, 1664, 1667 he was one of the Connecticut Commissioners for the United Colonies. He was extensively engaged in trade, and often absent from the colony. He had an interest in several sugar plantations at Antigua, in partnership with Richard Lord, and frequently went to the West Indies. His speculations proved unprofitable and as he had borrowed considerable money, his affairs became deeply involved, so that pecuniary assistance was granted him by the Assembly. This led to his withdrawal from the magistracy, but he retrieved his affairs, and he was again Assistant from 1680 to 1693, and also in 1698. His wife Ruth was living in 1680, but died before 1688.
